CCAPW General Scholarship CCAPW Graduate Studies Scholarship

The purpose of CCAPW's general scholarship awards is to provide financial assistance to Asian and Pacific Islander women currently residing in Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced or Tulare Counties. The selection criteria include academic achievement, extracurricular activities, and financial need. Applicants may be entering, continuing undergraduate or graduate, or re-entry students in a college or university. Study in all academic areas will be considered. This year, CCAPW will also offer a scholarship to a recipient pursuing studies at the graduate level.

Mae Takahashi Scholarship

Mae Takahashi 1936-2001

Mae Takahashi was the founding president of CCAPW. She pioneered the development of a Central California organization of Asian Pacific women by modeling sister Asian and Pacific Islander women's organizations in Los Angeles and the Bay Area. She established the Central Valley's participation in state and national APW networks. Mae initiated and oversaw the governance issues of the organization's nonprofit status and planted the seeds for the organization's successful review of 25 years. She has been an integral part of improving the status of API women in the Central Valley. Today our membership of community activists, professionals, educators, health providers, businesswomen, Asian and Pacific Islander organizational and community leaders continues the CCAPW mission in her honor and memory by offering a scholarship in her name for students studying in the area of health or business.
